Question	Answer
In the technical offer, we are supposed to provide a sample of all items offered. Could you please tell me what you mean with "We provide the design" and "We will provide the design"? For example; for Lot 1, Item Number 7-Baseball caps with EULEX logo, We can provide the EULEX logo on sample; however, we do not have the design for the text Print. Then the design will be provided only for the awarded tenderer, right? Could you please tell me whether it is acceptable to send only the material for which you write "We provide the design" and "We will provide the design"? For example, For Lot 1, Item 1, you request a pen and tell us about the colour and size. Then if we send you a pen meeting these requirements, is it acceptable? Then if we send you a pen meeting these requirements without any printings on it, is it acceptable?	"We provide the design" it has the same meaning as "we will provide the design" and it is meant the layout on the items. The design will be provided only to the awarded company. Therefore, the samples should be provided without any printings.
